4 The younger brother of the king, a capable and energetic administrator. He's the heir of both, the earldom of Sarkum and the throne. Anaflas is a member of the Melderyni Council of Eleven.

5 Came into his family estates by murder. Thieving, bribery and blackmailing cleared his way into his position.

6 Vassal of Baron Yuri of Xeladof. Portrait: DUNIR 18.

7 Distressed by the growing power of the Earl of Sarkum and his influence on Andasin IV. Regards himself as the greatest loyalist of the house of Kand, but feels that the present king is something of a disappointment.

8 A distant descendent of the kings of Alatar.

9 Is something of a romantic: believes in ideals, rather than the realities, of knighthood. Wants to establish a regular tournament of chivalry and is petitioning the King since 717 to this end.

<sup>10</sup> Fond of ease and luxury. His girth is expanding rapidly, so he tries to avoid physical exertion. Neither competent nor intelligent. The king is growing frustrated of him. Takes pride in his illiteracy. Holds Blainer manor.

1.4 The Exchequer

(The first column lists the office, the second column the office holder's estates, the third column gives the holder of the office.)

Royal Man at arms (3x20 à 50d)		N.N.

<sup>12</sup> A skilled and careful administrator, his counsel is often taken lightly by the king, primarily due to along standing mutual dislike between Sir Marik and Earl Milaka, as Marik disliked the marriage of Mirelael and Ranald Milaka. He described the Earl as „an abandoned whelp“ after the fall of Sarkum.

Earl Milaka pressured the king to dismiss Sir Marik, but the Chancellor is protected by his friendship with prince Anafas Milaka and being an old retainer of clan Kand.

He's still in excellent health and holds Elvan manor.

Sir Sinel is a lay member of the Checkered Shield and friend of the Sheriff of Perinore. He wants to negotiate in the confrontation between the Sheriff of Perishire (also Bishop of Perinore) and the Grandmaster at Menekod about the control over the Checkered Shield's Dovan Chapterhouse. 31 Involved Kandy in the Kuseme War in 712. Generally unpopular at court. He is given to foolish and arrogant pride. Privately styles himself Earl of Kuseme.

32 Clan Tertimis is traditionally a strong supporter of the House of Kand. Stennis is a fleshy man, whose bluff manner masks a sophisticated mind.

3 Clerical Offices and Tenancies in Kanday

3.1 Church of Larani

(Total: 277,290 acres)

The Church of Larani is represented by two orders, the Order of Hyvrik and its corresponding Fighting Order, the Order of the Checkered Shield. By canonical law, the Order of Hyvrik officially maintains control over the fighting order. This means, the local canonical authorities (bishops, abbots) control adjacent chapterhouses, but de facto, the Checkered Shield is responsible to the archbishop of Kandia and to the King.

3.1.1 Order of Hyvrik

(Total: 189,880 acres)

(The first column lists the office, the second column the office holder's estates, the third column gives the holder of the office.)

<sup>33</sup> A shrewd and scholarly man; one of Andasin IV. closest and most trusted advisors. Counsellor the king to resolve the conflict between the Checkered Shield and the Bishop of Perinore over the control of Dovon in favour of the bishop.

<sup>35</sup> Former knight, in service of the Baron of Zerien until 696. Swift raise due to native abilities and powerful connections. Became sheriff of Nore (E717). Choleric temper. Enmity to the grandmaster of the Order of the Checkered Shield. Meddles in foreign policy towards Rethem. Counsellor the king to ignore the skirmishing between the Checkered Shield and the Copper Hook.

<sup>36</sup> Earl Milaka's nephew; used family connections to finance the construction of a large cathedral at Korri, being the envy of all other bishops. A cousin of Prince Anafas Milaka. Assisted Anafas in secret negotiations with the Rethemi Earl Denyl Lynnaeus of Tormau.

3.1.2 Order of the Checkered Shield

(Total: 155,310 acres)

The order only holds Menekod directly from the crown, all other estates are held from the Order of Hyvrik. The Chabla (grandmaster) steadily tries to release the Checkered Shield from the control maintained by the Order of Hyvrik.

(The first column lists the office, the second column the office holder's estates, the third column gives the holder of the office.)

3.2 Church of Peoni

(Total: 8,020 acres)

The Church of Peoni is weakly organised and communication with the Hârnian Primate in Thay is complicated due to the distance. A petition before the Peonian pontiff to create a western Hârnian Primacy is being expected in 721.

There are three Peonian monasteries who hold their estates from the Archbishop of Western <sup>37</sup> The Chabla (Grandmaster) is appointed by the Order; theoretically under the command of the Turintesa of Kandy, practically answerable to the Archbishop of Kandia and the King.

<sup>38</sup> Petitioned the king for the control of all frontier estates of the Checkered Shield. Has tried to end the conflict with the Copper Hook for several times by attempts to parlay with Marag of Yeredar, the Agrikan grandmaster. Opposed by the radical „Banners of Honour“, a faction of young knights within the Checkered Shield. Tries to keep peace in his own order. Liege: King Ansasin IV.

Hârn, who holds them from the crown. The Archbishop primarily maintains control in doctrinal affairs and appointment of higher offices in clergy. The single temples regard a large amount of freedom and co-operation largely limited to mutual aids. The abbeys have an important function as centres of education and contemplation.

„When Andasin of Kand led his clan into exile in the Mimea Hills he found the Mimeyi to be willing allies against the Morgathian Theocracy. Andasin I swore the Mimeyi would life free n their hills as long as his kingdom stood. His heirs have not always been diligent about upholding the oath, but it has been renewed upon each succession.“ (HM BARBARIANS, GOZYDA 1).

„The Mimeyi trade sporadically with Kandian mercantylers, exchanging furs for metal goods and cloth.“ (HM BARBARIANS, GOZYDA 2). Some bands started to practice simple agriculture and keep a few domestic animals.

„The Domi trade with passing vessels or coastal Kandian villages.“ (HM BARBARIANS, GOZYDA 2). The Domi are fisherfolk and practice agriculture.

„The Domi and Mimeyi have reasonable good relations with Kanday and there is significant trade between them. Officially, the Kandians regard the Domi and Mimeyi as self-governing allies. The Gozyda are not interested in the official position – they just want to be left alone.“ (HM BARBARIANS, GOZYDA 2).

6.4 *Adaenum Nations

„The Earl of Sarkum has laid claim on Anfla and the other islands in the group. Since 716 he has sent annual expeditions to Anfla with the aim of both exploring the island and convincing the Adaenum of the benefits of the Earl's protection. The response of the tribes has been polite desinterest, although they have accepted all gifts. In 719, an attempt by the Kandians to introduce farming techniques and implements to the coastal tribes was met with scorn and anger. The Earl has so far attempted to peacefully co-opt the Adaenum, but has not ruled out the possibility of military conquest. He plans another expedition for the spring of 720.“ (HM BARBARIANS, ADAENUM 3).
